and woodturners but it also showcases all the conveniences of the modern era. The historic Port Precinct is recognised as one of Australia's finest heritage icons and is home to the largest riverboat fleet in the world. The Port of Echuca and its paddlesteamers present a panorama of living history unequalled in Australia and the world.

The international TV hit series "All The Rivers Run" created an upsurge within the tourist industry but the 'piece de resistance' is arguably the massive redgum wharf at the Port of Echuca. Murray River Paddlesteamers, located in the historic Port of Echuca precinct, operate a fleet of lovingly maintained paddleboats from Echuca - Moama on the banks of the mighty Murray River.

Meandering between the redgum lined banks we settle back on board a paddle steamer for a Murray River cruise and see the diversity of modern day houseboats to the vessels from yesteryear and learn how important this inland port was to the economy of the region. Whilst cruising we will enjoy a delicious morning tea.

Time for lunch. Take your pick from numerous cafes, bars and restaurants within the port precinct and have free time to discover the historical Port of Echuca. Before we leave this historic town, we will conduct a town tour and explain some of the history of Echuca and Moama, which was founded by two ex-convicts from Lancashire.

On our way home we drive through the Barmah Forest. We have a quick stop in Picola to admire the painting of the metal silo in Picola which features the local Barmah Forest. In by-gone days Picola was known as 'the hook' because it was on the end of the line, meaning the railway line. The artist has a challenge for you and included a hook hidden in the painting. See if you can find it!

We then depart for "Byramine" Homestead which is one of the oldest buildings in Victoria, steeped in history, as it was part of the original Yarrawonga Station. The host will welcome you and provide a fascinating insight into the area's colonial times and take you on a tour of the homestead and the grounds with their majestic Elm trees.

This is an enchanting memorial to those hard pioneer days of so long ago... imagining another style of life in a bygone era. We then make our way back to Yarrawonga and have time to freshen up before dinner.

Tonight, we head next door to the Tame Restaurant for a delicious à la carte dinner. The Linga Longa Team will join you for an evening of fun and games throughout the evening.

reflection on the early colonial days of Victoria, there was the darker side. The Beechworth Lunatic Asylum as it was known, or Mayday Hills to locals, has a very unpleasant side to it that operated right through until it closed in 1995 after having operated for 128 years. Today however the buildings are magnificent, the gardens abundant which make Mayday Hills the perfect place to include in our town tour of Beechworth.

Our first stop is at the Beechworth Freemason's Lodge of St John No. 14 which in 2017 celebrated its 160th anniversary of it building, which is the oldest continuously used lodge in Victoria.

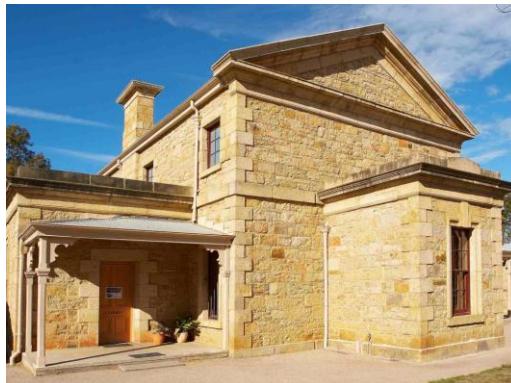

Be entertained by Lazy Harry, a local identity, with songs and local stories and poetry. We then enjoy a delicious morning tea in this historic building.

We now have free time to shop, fossick around the shops and have lunch, maybe at the famous Beechworth Bakery. After lunch we meet at the old courthouse, "Home to Heroes and Villains" for a guided tour and see where Ned Kelly was tried, convicted and sentenced to hang. This courthouse has been the setting, for more than 130 years, of some of Victoria's most fascinating court cases and still with its original furniture and fittings and its novel "air conditioning" of the day.

We leave Beechworth and travel to Yarrawonga via the lovely little towns of Chiltern and Rutherglen. There will then be free time to shop and relax before dinner on your return.

Our Farewell Dinner tonight is a delicious Country Roast with all the trimmings and Glühwein in the private function room at Tame. This venue is ideal, with its' private dining, for our farewell night. Enjoy a fun-filled night with lots of prizes and give-aways.
